

Anthony P. Danielak, Vice President

tdanielak@prairie-capital.com

312.701.0070

Tony Danielak currently serves as a Vice President of Prairie Capital, and is responsible for sourcing and evaluating potential investment opportunities, leading due diligence, structuring transactions, and supporting portfolio company investments. Tony currently serves on the board of directors for Right At School.

Prior to joining Prairie Capital in 2008, Tony was an Analyst in the Business Services Group in the corporate finance department of William Blair & Company, focusing on mergers and acquisitions advisory services and public and private equity financings.

Tony graduated from Georgetown University with a BA in American Studies. He received his MBA from the University of Chicago Booth School of Business. Tony lives with his wife and two sons in the Lincoln Square neighborhood of Chicago.

In addition to his responsibilities at Prairie, Tony is a member of the Big Shoulders Fund Chairman's Advisory Council. For additional information about these organizations, please see the Civic Engagement section of this website.